Second Collection This Week

Peter's Pence

This weekeknd, as is always the case following the the feast of St Peter and St. Paul, we have the collection for Peter's Pence.

This is ne of the collections mandated by the Holy See. It goes back to Anglo Saxon times and is a connection between the faithful and the work of the pope, especially his support of the most disadvantaged. More information on the work enabled by your donations can be found at:

General Election

The Bishop's conference of England and Wales encourage Catholics to vote and to make sure they consider carefully the moral implications of our faith.

The Catholic Union has also published an election guide with some information and suggested questions for candidates and voters ahead of the General Election. You can download their handy election guide. [Link on website newsletter]

Various pro life organisations give help in encouraging you to find out where candidates stand on pro life issues – which are one of the key issues facing us. e.g.

Over a quarter of a million unborn babies were killed by abortion in England and Wales during 2022, the highest number on record. Pray for an end to abortion in the UK.

The Campaign for marriage website gives a good reflection on where the main parties stand on marriage, another important issues for Catholics to consider.

Joint Parishes Summer BBQ Sunday 30th June

This is one of the major social events for our two parishes. Do come along (or stay after the 11am mass) and enjoy the presbytery garden and each other's company accompanied by good food.

If you are able to we ask for a £5 donation towards your food.

If you are able to donate a raffle prize – something you might like to receive – that would be lovely. ☺

If you are able to bring your own garden chair if you want to sit in the garden that would be a help.

Are you a member of our £100 club, which raises money for the church? If not why not speak to Gloria in the parish Office.

Congratulations to the lucky winners for the first quarter of 2024. 100 CLUB WINNERS FOR Q1 2024

Christina Allgood, Carmel Gray and Auriel Rankmore

New Lectionary

In Advent a new translation of the Lectionary will come into effect. It is unwise to buy a new missal before then!

Holy Family & Holy Angels Parishes

Having recently attended the Guildford Deanery Pastoral Meeting representing the Holy Family Parish we have been tasked to share a Good News story from our Parish.

So, we are a small tight knit Parish whose congregation spans families with preschoolers through to nonagenarians. One of our good news stories is perhaps the recent Talent Show that was organised by a young mum in the Parish. It proved to be really popular and really brought the parish together as a community. The Holy Family church hall was packed with families and young children right up to perhaps some of the most elderly members of our Parish. A huge variety of talents were demonstrated and a fun evening was had by all. Who knew that Holy Family had such talent!

The Parish Office is currently normally open on Wednesday and Friday Mornings. Please use the normal telephone number (01252 321 422) and parish email address: holyofficesurrey@gmail.com
